M. JEROME RYON

LIFE & CAREER

Jérôme Ryon is an accomplished French chef with over 20 years of experience in the culinary industry.

Born in Bresse, he grew up with a passion for food and began his career in the kitchen at a young age.

After honing his skills at various restaurants in France, Ryon joined the Hôtel de la Cité in 1998 as a sous-chef, where he worked his way up to become the head chef in 2006.

He has served as a mentor to many young chefs and is committed to passing on his knowledge and expertise to future generations.

Throughout his career, Ryon has received numerous awards and accolades for his outstanding cuisine, including a Michelin star in 2014.

He continues to innovate and create exceptional dishes that showcase the best of French cuisine.
