

ABOUT

M. MARC VIALA

LIFE & CAREER

Marc Viala is a French chef with over 21 years of experience in the culinary arts. His passion for this profession has taken him to more than five countries, where he has explored and developed new techniques and perspectives on pastry art.

Throughout his career, Marc has worked in boutiques, fine dining restaurants, luxury hotels, and international events, where he has been responsible for the creation, production, staff management, and cost management.

He is dedicated to delivering high-quality products that ensure customer happiness and satisfaction.

Marc's strong sense of commitment and devotion have made him an excellent team leader.

He is focused on guiding by example and is known for his leadership skills.

His team members look up to him and rely on his guidance to improve their professional skills.